

ADAMS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

ANNUAL REPORT

2017 - 2018

Sheriff Michael T. McIntosh

To the Citizens of Adams County,

It is my privilege to present you with the Adams County Sheriff's Office Annual Report for 2017-2018. I have had the honor to serve as your Adams County Sheriff for nearly four years. As Sheriff, my focus has been on building strong relationships within the community as a way to foster greater trust with our Agency and more importantly our community as a whole.

Our work with community relations has been at the forefront during my time as Sheriff. The Adams County Sheriff's Office Community Connections Team was formed with the goal of using many different platforms to connect our Agency with the community. The team is a diverse group made up of civilian and certified staff. The five-person team plans and supports events hosted by the Sheriff's Office, releases public information through social media, the Sheriff's App, radio, television, our website, and other platforms. With a fast growing county like ours, I feel this team is necessary to help keep our community informed in a timely manner.

2017 was a very important year for the Adams County Jail Division. Construction finished at the end of 2017 and we celebrated the opening of our new Mental Health Unit in December. The Sheriff's Office is seeing more and more inmates come through our facility with mental health needs. This Unit provides a separate living space for inmates who have behavioral problems related to mental health.

As we look to the future, FLATROCK Regional Training Center is expanding. Recently, construction was completed for our new Physical Ability Course. By the end of 2018, FLATROCK will have an inflatable wall training venue to use for building search training. This is just the start of more great things to come.

Each day I remind myself of the great opportunity I have to work alongside the brave men and women with whom I serve. As an Agency we will continue to listen to our community and serve you to our highest potential. I am grateful to serve as Sheriff of the finest and most professional law enforcement agency in the country, the Adams County Sheriff's Office.

CHAPLAINS

The Adams County Sheriff's Office Chaplaincy exists to provide counseling, emotional support or spiritual guidance for members of the Office, their families, and members of the public.

In 2010, Pastor Brian Thompson started volunteering with the Adams County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) Academy cadets as a Chaplain. Teaching Emotional Survival for Law Enforcement to Academy Cadets and their families remain a primary activity of Chaplain Thompson. Over time, it became evident that the academy staff was receiving more benefit than the cadets themselves. Therefore, in about 2012, Captain McIntosh (now Sheriff McIntosh) invited Pastor Thompson to become the Chaplain of the organization, offering invocations at major functions and being available to assist employees sworn and civilian as needed. In 2014, Pastor Thompson challenged the POST certification successfully and became a sworn ACSO Reserve Deputy. In 2015, Pastor Thompson became the Lead Chaplain and a part time Deputy of the ACSO. He now trains with sworn employees and assists deputies on Patrol while being available to all employees of the ACSO, sworn and civilian.

There are currently two Chaplains at the ACSO: Lead Chaplain Brian Thompson, Senior Pastor of Purpose Church in Firestone, and Chaplain Joel Kershaw, Senior Pastor of Brighton United Methodist Church.

ACADEMY CLASS 23

OFFICE OF THE SHERIFF

The purpose of the Office of the Sheriff is to reinforce and support the Sheriff's Office mission by providing professional services and interacting with the community in a positive manner. The core services that fall under the Office of the Sheriff include: Internal Affairs, Community Connections Team, Human Resources, and Concealed Handgun Permits.

CONCEALED HANDGUN PERMITS

Our CHP Unit issues the Concealed Handgun Permits for Adams County Residents. We currently have four full-time civilian employees who issue permits.

By state statute the County Sheriffs are required to issue Concealed Handgun Permits (CHP) in Colorado for the residents of their county. Our unit is dedicated to handling the intake of new applicants, as well as issuing the renewal of existing applicants every 5 years.

CHP is on track to issue over 4,000 new and renewal permits in 2018.

NEW applicants are fingerprinted, photographed and their application and training certificate are reviewed for completeness. They then send the fingerprints to Colorado Bureau of Investigations (CBI) Once the fingerprint background is finished they send CHP what is called an Insta-check, stating if the applicant is eligible or not to possess a firearm. We then complete our portion of the background and determine if that applicant can conceal a firearm. If they can, we issue a Concealed Handgun Permit (CHP), which is good for 5 years.

RENEWAL applications are handled almost the same, but we do not have to send in new fingerprints. Since our Agency went to an appointment system online they are able to run a portion of our background prior to the applicant's arrival and if we find them still in good standing we issue the renewal card on the spot.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Our Human Resources (HR) Section provides support to the agency with employee relations, employee law, policy interpretation, compensation, recruitment, background investigations, time-keeping, benefits, and leave administration. The HR Section consists of a manager, multiple HR Specialists, an Administrative Technician and three background Detectives.
