FLATROCK Training Center Promotes Safety in Community

Commerce City—A new report put Colorado in the bottom half of safest states in the country, according to financial services website WalletHub. Among the 50 states compared in the report, Colorado ranked 29th. Violent crimes, workplace hazards, bullying and neighborhood safety are among the factors considered in the report.

These safety issues are among the scenarios that law enforcement officers prepare for at FLATROCK Regional Training Center. This weekend the Adams County Sheriff's Office is inviting members of the public to step inside this exclusive training facility and experience those same challenges.

"We're charged to uphold the law and keep the peace. We're also joining forces with members of the public so they can promote safety in their own neighborhoods. This Open House at FLATROCK is a great way to see how we provide high-quality training that benefits the community," said Adams County Sheriff Michael McIntosh.

The FLATROCK Open House & Career Expo is on Saturday, June 17 from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. The doors open at 8:30 a.m. People who are 14 years or older can sign up for tours of the facility every 20 minutes. The event is located at 23600 East 128th Avenue, Commerce City, 80022.

Spots are limited at this exclusive Open House & Career Expo. Members of the public can book a tour ahead of the event by signing up here: flatrocktraining.com/book-online. Tours are also available for walk-in signups.

The tour includes demonstrations of the shooting range and interactions with the Ti Simulator to experience real-life scenarios. Members of the public can also ride along on the high-speed driving track and watch a Taser deployment. Human resources personnel will be on hand to answer any questions about jobs in Patrol, Detectives, Jail and Administrative Services. There will also be Special Units such as the K9 Unit, SWAT Team, Bomb Squad, Crime Lab, Firearms
